Midget Team Gets Support!

The Appomattox Midgets – young football players – 9 and 10 years old – get energetic support from the cheerleaders (above) who are as faithful about turning out for games as hundreds of loyal fans who find lots of excitement in Bragg Stadium (and fields far away) when the Midgets, Mites, and T-Rebs clash with other young athletes. (At ground level, from left): Dee Ann Wooten, Susan Smith, Pam O'Brien, Sharon Roach and Pam Ford. (Standing): Doris Smith , Rita Reynolds, Donna Mitchell and Pam Smith. And at the top: Tina Reynolds.

"JOIN US"

School at 7 p.m. Here you will learn the purpose and methods of Boy Scouting, the operation of Troop 546 will be explained, and you will meet the people who run this scouting program possible. Any boys interested in joining the troop will be registered at this time.

Boy Scouting, like any other youth program, is dependent upon adult assistance for its success. The invitation to "Join Us" is also extended to any adult who would like to be a part of this program.

The only requirement for joining the Boy Scouts is to be 11 years old. It is known, however, that there are many boys in the area between the ages of 8 and 11 who would also like to be scouts, but have no program available. An effort is being made to re-establish the Cub Scout Pack. To do this, again, adult assistance is needed. Particularly needed at this time is a cubmaster, a Webelos leader, and committeemen. So if your interest lies in this area of the scouting program you are also invited to "Join Us".

As you can see, "Join Us" is more than just a drive to recruit new Boy Scouts. The objective is to establish a complete scouting program for boys in the Appomattox area and to make this program known to and available to as many boys as possible.

If you are not able to take advantage of the October 30th event, simply come to the gymnasium at the Intermediate School any Tuesday night between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.

The Boy Scouts of Appomattox say, "For fun, fellowship, and good times, Join Us, on Saturday, October 30th."

Information on scouting of Appomattox maybe obtained from any of the following persons, Mr. Ivey Holland, Institutional Representative - 352-6251 - Mr. Warren Taylor - Neighborhood Commissioner - 352-7624 Floyd Flint, Scoutmaster, Troop 546 - 352-7250.-

Farm Bureau Office Open Wed.- Friday

Herbert Goodman, of Buckingham , incurance advisor is here on each of these two days to consult with Farm Bureau members and others interested in the various programs offered by Farm Bureau.

The Farm Bureau office here can furnish drugs for the treatment of farm animals and upon order, baler twine and disk blades. In addition, Garland Holt, Appomattox Farmers Supply Co., 18 E. Harrel St., offers tires and batteries to Farm Bureau members through their Bureau program of supply.

On sale soon will be the "Fanny Flags", emblems to place on slow moving vehicles, a requirement by law effective Oct. 30

New field representative for the Central District, Farm Bureau is Dorsn W. Osborne. He replaces Lewis Williamson, who is now teaching school in Nottoway county.

The Farm Bureau office on Church St. is open each Wed. and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Welfare Programs Meeting Oct. 27

The Welfare Programs Study Commission will hold a public hearing Wed., Oct. 27, 1971 at 10 a.m., in House Room 4 of the State Capitol in Richmond.

The Commission would like to hear from interested individuals and organizations on possible avenues of State action in restoring welfare recipients to self-supporting members of society, ensuring that only those in need of assistance receive it, and otherwise improving the welfare system.

The Commission is chaired by Delegate Russell M. Carneal. Also, serving on the Commission are: Delegates Carl E. Bain, Alan A. Diamonstein, Robert R. Gwathmey, III and Randall O. Reynolds; State Senators William B. Hopkin, Henry E. Howell and David F. Thornton; and Grandon O'Kelly Pendergraft, Jr.

Persons interested in addressing the Commission at the hearing are asked to notify the Commission c/o the Division of Statutory Research and Drafting State Capitol, Post Office Box 3-AG, Richmond, Virginia 232-19, and to submit written copies of their remarks.

Commission will hold a public hearing Wed., Oct. 27, 1971 at 10 a.m. in House Room 4 of the State Capitol in Richmond.

Mobile Home Owners Must Pay $2 Fee

Appomattox County Sheriff's Department wishes to remind everyone having trailers on their property that The Trailer Ordinance of Appomattox County passed by the County Board of Supervisors, effective January 1, 1971, will be strictly enforced, beginning October 18, 1971.

This ordinance requires all owners having trailer lots to obtain a health permit from the Health Department. After obtaining this permit owners must pay a $2.00 County fee for trailer license.

Any owner having a trailer lot and not having paid this fee will be in violation of The Trailer Ordinance of Appomattox County, and can be fined a minimum of $50 to a maximum of $500.

Beginning October 18, 1971, this Ordinance will be strictly enforced. All trailers in the county will be checked and violators will be charged. There will be no further notices given.

J-V's Pound S-River 30-0

Appo Jayvees pounded Staunton River Jayvees in a 30-0 victory last Thursday that places the Appo team at a season record of 4-1-0 so far.

Dickie Kelso, on a 65 yard run made the first six in the first quarter for the Jr. Raiders with a pass from Jamerson to Wingfield for the extra two points. Again in the 1st quarter Clarence Clark, on a punt return, scrambled 60 yards for the TD with a pass from Jamerson to Clark to make it 16-0 on the boards.

In the 2nd quarter Kelso ran the ball from one yard out and even with a kick effort that failed, the score was upped to 22-0 and Jr. Raiders were still going strong.

In the 4th, Kelso passed to Clark for a 70 yard run that ran up the tally again and William Lipford made the run for the extra two points to climax the day with a resounding 30-0 victory.

Outstanding for defense were Phil Rice, Darrell Bryant, Mike Quinn, Warren Coleman and Ricky Wingfield.

For the offense: Ed Jamerson and Mike Ramsey.

It was Darryl Bryant's recovery of a fumble in the 2nd quarter that set up that TD.

Two Bits . . . Four . . .

"Two bits, four bits, six bits - a dollar. All for Rebels stand up and holler." Sounds familiar? It is if you're a fan of the T-Rebs, Midgets, Mites - all young football players of Appomattox. These cheerleaders (above) are completing that familiar cheer and hoping that everyone will continue to [illegible] Mites. (1st row, from left): Patricia Chandler and Sharon [illegible] second row): Lori Wooten, Lindberly Chenault and Kathy Lewis.

Appomattox held Staunton River to three first downs during the game, with Appo players in control throughout the contest. The whole squad of Appo players was used to defeat Staunton River, a nice team effort by players and coaches.
